

Thank you for considering taking part in iDEA's film.

Your mission, should you choose to accept it, is to use your phone to film yourself spelling out a word or phrase from George the Poet's inspirational poem, All Existence Is Contribution.

You can do this in any way you wish (as long as we can still read the words), be creative, have fun, let your imaginations run free. You could write the words on a piece of card and hold it up to the camera, paint them on your face, write them in the sand, spell them out in daisies, even pull them out of your pocket on a piece of silk.

We would love to have you in the film. It'll only take you a minute, and it's for a really good cause. If you are happy to help, let us know, select a bold word or phrase from the attached poem.

Oh, and a quick word to the wise: you probably all know this already but just in case..
